Family Promise of the Midlands

Our mission is to help families experiencing homelessness in their quest to achieve sustainable independence. Family Promise of the Midlands (FPM) partners with congregations in the Midlands, individuals, families, other social service agencies, foundations, and businesses to provide solutions for families who have children and are facing a housing crisis.

We are able to meet our mission through the dedication and support of the faith based community:

We accomplish our mission through delivering these life-saving services:

- Homelessness Prevention

Stopping families from experiencing homelessness by preventing eviction and providing additional services as needed

- Temporary Shelter

Through our traditional model in Host Congregations, utilizing various community partnerships or finding other creative housing solutions, we support families experiencing homelessness by providing temporary shelter and case management services

- Stabilization Services

Our Continuing the Promise program ensures that graduating families remain stable in their housing, thus, reducing the recidivism rate back to homelessness

- Tomorrow's Promise

Supports students who are part of families having housing stability issues with enrichment activities including athletics, music and art

Hold community engagement events that include financial literacy, professional developments, and entertaining activities for the entire family

- Transitional Housing

Supportive, temporary housing that serves to bridge the gap from homelessness to permanent housing

Each of these programs ensures that the child or children remain with their parent or caregiver and that we are reducing trauma and focused on providing stability

The Temporary Shelter and Transitional Housing programs serve as static sites that provide opportunities for our volunteers to engage with our families and work with them on their path to stability
